WNAF Features Interfaith Health Clinic

Join us for the next Wednesday Noon Adult Fellowship on Wednesday, October 22, at 12:30 p.m. in Parish Hall. Our program will be presented by Amanda Armstrong, Church Street member and Director of Development at the Interfaith Health Clinic. The InterFaith Health Clinic opened in 1991 and is a non-profit health care ministry in Knoxville, Tennessee providing affordable medical care, dental care, mental health counseling and prescription medications for the working uninsured. Since opening, the clinic has served over 50,000 patients and has provided over 300,000 patient encounters.

Please make meal reservations by calling the church office at 524-3048 or e-mailing reservations@churchstreetumc.org by Monday, October 20. Lunch is $7 per person. Menu: Chicken Sandwich on a pretzel roll, tomato, onion, lettuce, cheese, potato salad, and root beer floats.

Support Our Youth Ministry

In youth ministry, our fall retreat is one of the most exciting weekends of the year. Spiritual Life Advance, known as SLA, is November 7-9 this year and will be held at Crosspoint Retreat Center. It will be a weekend full of fellowship, worship, and study. As a congregation, we have three opportunities to partner with the youth ministry for this event.

1. Join us in prayer. Please pray for the students, volunteers, and leaders as we prepare for this great time together.
2. Join us financially. If you feel led to provide a student with the opportunity to attend SLA, you can donate to our Youth Scholarship Fund. The amount of the retreat for a student is $125, but any amount is helpful!
3. Pick up a Buddy Bag! A Buddy Bag is a small bag for each student that will include supplies for them for the week. Inside each bag will be a card with instructions for the individual or family that picks it up. These will be available for pick up in the Breezeway on October 19 & 26. All Buddy Bags should be returned to Church Street by Sunday, November 2.

Join Us For Trunk or Treat on October 26

Our annual trick-or-treating event is scheduled for Sunday, October 26, from 5-7 p.m. in the Magnolia Lot. We need plenty of cars to fill the parking lot to make the evening fun for everyone. Sign up now in the Children's Hallway. All you have to do is choose a theme, decorate your car, and have plenty of goodies to hand out. Please prepare for at least 100 kids. Participating cars need to be parked and ready by 4:45 p.m. Cars entering the lot after 4:45 p.m. pose a danger to children who arrive early so we ask your cooperation with this schedule.

Supper will be served outside that evening (cost: $7 for adults, $4 for children) and there will be a movie in the Parish Hall beginning at 6:15 p.m. Bring your friends and neighbors and be part of this fun fall event.

Kay Center Hosts Virtual Dementia Tour

The Kay Center will host The Virtual Dementia Tour on Monday, October 20, at 3 p.m. It is a sensitivity training first distributed by the company Second Wind Dreams. The training will give individuals an insight into what it is like to be the person suffering with Alzheimer's disease or other forms of dementia. Individuals will go through the tour and, once the entire group is finished, will return for the wrap-up session. During this time the tour will be explained in more detail and questions will be answered. This is an excellent eye-opening experience everyone should take advantage of.

You must sign up to be a part of the tour. There are 12 spaces available. It will begin at 3 p.m. and participants are sent every 10 minutes. Sign-ups will be open to Kay Center Caregivers first on a first come, first served basis then opened to others on October 15. Please see Judith or call 521-0293 to reserve your spot.

Homebound Communion: Serving Christ Through Serving Others

On Sunday, November 2, we will be taking Holy Communion to our homebound members. You can help in this ministry in two ways. First, if you would like to be on one of the teams that takes Communion out to our members and you can commit to Sunday afternoon, November 2, contact Rick Isbell, Minister of Discipleship, at risbell@churchstreetumc.org. Second, if you know of church members who would like to receive Holy Communion and cannot get to church for whatever reason, please let Rev. Isbell know so they can be put on the list. Teams will be assembled with a clergy member or a Stephen Minister to go out on November 2. Your help is greatly appreciated.

Stephen Ministry at Church Street is growing again, and we invite you to prayerfully consider joining us. Do you think this vibrant ministry might be a place where you can serve? Are you willing to participate in the training and then walk with someone who needs encouragement?

From now until November 16 we will be accepting applications. All members of the congregation, men and women, young adults to seniors, are welcome to apply. For more information or for application forms, please contact Nicole Krewson at nkrewson@churchstreetumc.org or Eric Schmittou at ericvon27@gmail.com. Applicants will be interviewed by Stephen Leaders in late November and training is expected to begin in mid January.

Thanksgiving Food Baskets

Once again CSUMC will be making and delivering Thanksgiving food baskets for families in need, and we invite you to participate. Financial donations to help us with food purchases are most welcome, and we need volunteers who will help us pack and deliver the food. We invite individuals, families, Sunday School classes, and small groups to consider participating. This is a wonderful way to make a difference for a family in need just in time for Thanksgiving. For more information, or to volunteer or donate, please contact Pastor Matt Hampton at mhampton@churchstreetumc.org.

Finding Bethlehem in the Midst of Bedlam – Advent study by James W. Moore

Christmas or confusion, Bethlehem or bedlam... which will you choose this year? The truth is, we don't have to choose, because Christmas always happens right in the midst of our confusion. God breaks into our confusion and is made known in Jesus Christ. Christ breaks into our chaos and confusion and brings Christmas.

This five week book study with questions for reflection and discussion and six daily Bible readings for personal devotional time during the week will begin on Wednesday, October 29, and finish on December 3. We will meet in room 201-A from 9-11 a.m. Childcare is provided. The cost of the book is $8.50. For more information or to sign up, contact Juanita Cowles at 712-3262 by phone or text. You may also email at Rockyoptennjc1@hughes.net. The book will be available two weeks before class starts to be prepared for discussion on October 29.

Preparing for Advent Adult Class Studies

The Advent season begins on Sunday, November 30, with the first Sunday of Advent. Many of our adult Sunday School classes choose to do a special Advent study during the 4-5 Sundays during this season. Is your class wanting to do an Advent study? Have you already selected one? If you would like to do a special Advent study, you can go to www.Cokesbury.com/AdventStudies and look at all that are available. If you need suggestions, contact Rick Isbell, Minister of Discipleship. Rev. Ferguson will be using the study "A Different Kind of Christmas" by Mike Slaughter as a basis for his sermons during Advent. But, there are many more. Please do not wait until the last week to order your Advent study. Prepare now.

MISSIONS news

Church Street will be sending a group of adult church members on the Eleuthera mission trip along with our Youth Group, the week of Spring Break (March 15-21, 2015). The adult group will be working at a site separate from the Youth Group, and will be going to Eleuthera as an opportunity to provide our church members with a short-term mission experience. Spaces are limited. For more information please contact Kathy Ehrnschwender at katheaze@gmail.com.

SINGLES news

Please join us on Tuesday, October 21, for the next FOCUS. Our speaker will be associate pastor Nicole Krewson. She will tell us more about the Stephen Ministry here at Church Street. Dinner will begin at 6 p.m. in CLC 120 and is $7 per person. Be sure to make your reservations for Jason's Deli by calling the Church before Monday, October 20. Rev. Krewson will begin speaking at 6:30. The FOCUS group is a Singles Ministry event, however everyone is invited to attend.

BENEVOLENCE news

Do you know about the Benevolence Team? Do you know what they do and how they do it?

We have a 30-minute slide show that will answer all these questions. Benevolence Team members would love to show you how they help others and answer any additional questions for your Sunday School class or church group. Contact Doug Spencer at 804-4369 or Dan Kelley at 385-1187 to arrange a presentation.

Join the Walk to Fight Leukemia & Lymphoma

In the fall of 2012 Emily Ehrnschwender organized a walk for the "Light the Night" event sponsored by the East TN Leukemia & Lymphoma Society while Rick Isbell was battling non-Hodgkin's lymphoma. Emily is also a leukemia survivor. Each year after that, a group of Church Street members and friends have participated in this national walk on the UT campus. This year the walk is on Thursday, October 23, at 6 p.m., beginning at Circle Park on the UT Campus. This year we will again walk one mile around UT in the Light the Night event and raise money to fight these two blood cancers. If you would like to join the "Purple Shirts" team and walk with Rick Isbell and others, go to the Light the Night website: Leukemia & Lymphoma Society/Light the NightWalk2014/East Tennessee, and sign up and donate for the Purple Shirts team and walk with us. Remember to wear a purple shirt since it was the color of the shirts we wore on the very first walk.
